

Jonathan P. Graham

Jon Graham joined Danaher Corporation in 2006 as Senior Vice President and General Counsel. Before joining Danaher, Mr. Graham was the Vice President, Litigation & Legal Policy for the General Electric Company. In that role he had global responsibility for GE's legal disputes, litigation, investigations, compliance, and related legal policies. Prior to GE, Mr. Graham was a partner at Williams & Connolly LLP, in Washington, D.C. There he had a wide-ranging trial and litigation practice in which he represented corporations and individuals in a variety of matters including complex business litigation, international disputes/arbitration, and white-collar criminal matters.

Mr. Graham is an honors graduate of Pitzer College and of the University of Texas School of Law, where he was the Editor-in-Chief of the Texas Law Review. After graduation, he clerked for Judge Joseph Sneed of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in San Francisco.

Mr. Graham is a member of the Board of Trustees of Pitzer College in Claremont, California, a member of the Board of Trustees of the National Cathedral School for Girls in Washington, D.C.