

Energy, Oil & Gas Dispute Resolution Services

Energy, Oil & Gas is a highly specialized industry with a wide range of matters, which often involve large amounts in dispute. Parties benefit from CPR's experienced case managers and specialized neutrals with understanding of the subject matter, saving the time and cost in educating the neutral as to key issues relevant to their dispute.

ENERGY, OIL & GAS PANEL OF NEUTRALS

The Energy, Oil & Gas Panel of Neutrals is a blue-ribbon international panel including former General Counsel and other energy neutrals who are experts in resolving complex energy disputes including those involving alternative energy sources, fossil fuels, electrical, gas and nuclear specialties and can conduct proceedings in 10 different languages.

OUR PANEL OF NEUTRALS INCLUDES:

- Chaired professor of Energy Law at SMU and former advisor to U.S. Department of Commerce
- Former in-house counsel for worldwide power conglomerate
- Engineer with experience on some of the world's largest power plant megaprojects
- Former legal and technical advisor to FERC
- International practitioners with experience in solar, wind, biomass, geothermal and turbines
- Several former trial and appellate judges with extensive Oil & Gas experience

CPR'S RULES & PROCEDURES

Our rules, protocols, and model clauses are driven and informed by the CPR Institute, a collection of expert end-users on the front lines of dispute resolution. The CPR Institute's Energy, Oil & Gas Committee comprises leading practitioners, corporate counsel, academics, and neutrals.

Parties can use any of CPR's Rules or Procedures to effectively manage their energy, oil and gas disputes, including CPR's Administered Arbitration Rules or Mediation Procedures, any of CPR's Fast Track Procedures, or the Rules for Expedited Arbitration of Construction Disputes.

EXPERTISE IN CASE MANAGEMENT

Our case managers are attorneys with a combined 40 years of ADR experience and 5 languages.
