Biography

Jim Masterson
Assistant General Counsel, Litigation
Law and Franchise Integrity

Jim Masterson is assistant general counsel, Litigation at Mastercard. In this role, he leads the Global Litigation team in the Law Department, who oversee and manage significant antitrust and commercial litigations on behalf of Mastercard. Jim’s team is also responsible for handling antitrust investigations or proceedings involving governmental agencies such as the Department of Justice’s Antitrust Division or the European Commission. In addition, Jim provides legal counsel across Mastercard business units on litigation and antitrust issues.

Previously, Jim was responsible for managing U.S. litigations for Mastercard. Prior to joining Mastercard, Jim was an associate in the litigation department of Clifford Chance in New York City.

Jim hold a Juris Doctor degree from New York University School of Law and a bachelor of science in Business Administration from Georgetown University.