Best Practices for Resolving Government Disputes
Lunch Time Presentation | Washington, D.C.

Please join members of the CPR Institute’s Government & ADR Task Force and Environmental Committee and their distinguished guests for a lunch time presentation.

Thursday, April 12, 2018
12:00 pm – 2:00 pm (ET)

BakerHostetler
1050 Connecticut Avenue, NW Suite 1100
Washington, D.C. 20036

This high level lunch time presentation will feature directors of the dispute resolution divisions of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and the U.S. Department of the Interior and senior jurists from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency’s Environmental Appeals Board, discussing best practices for resolving energy, environmental, natural resources, oil and gas, and infrastructure disputes with, and appeals within, these agencies. Lunch will be served.

Speakers:
Dr. William Hall | Director, Office of Collaborative Action and Dispute Resolution, U.S. Department of the Interior
Deborah Osborne | Director, Dispute Resolution Services, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
Hon. Mary Kay Lynch | Environmental Appeals Judge, Environmental Appeals Board, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Hon. Kathie A. Stein | Environmental Appeals Judge, Environmental Appeals Board, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

To register, email Zoe Chanin at zchanin@cpradr.org and indicate if you will be joining in person or by phone

Register

Hosted By:
BakerHostetler