

2019 CPR International Mediation Competition

Hosted by the Arbitration and Mediation Center of the Chamber of Commerce Brazil Canada (CAM-CCBC)

CPR is delighted to announce the III edition of its International Mediation Competition, which will take place from April 4-6, 2019 in São Paulo, Brazil and will be hosted by the Arbitration and Mediation Center of the Chamber of Commerce Brazil Canada (CAM-CCBC). With up to 21 Universities participating, from all around the world, this year's competition promises to be a great success. We are certain the competition will be a great platform for students to develop their skills in mediation and to create a network among the future practitioners in the field.

Sponsorship will enable the Organizing Committee to cover the general costs of organizing the competition and to create a scholarship fund for participating teams with financial needs who might not be able to come to São Paulo to attend the competition without financial aid. The scholarship will be allocated by the Organizing Committee based on a number of criteria including (1) diversity; (2) the funding need; (3) a statement from the applicants on how participating in the competition will help them develop mediation in their countries.
