

Prof. Joan Stearns Johnsen

Professor

University of Florida Levin College of Law

Joan Stearns Johnsen teaches negotiation, mediation, and arbitration at the University of Florida Levin College of Law and is a Distinguished Neutral on CPR's Arbitrator and Mediator Panels. Additionally, Joan is on the panels of the American Arbitration Association, FINRA, the National Futures Association, the New York Supreme Court, Commercial Division, and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. Joan is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and is certified by the International Mediation Institute.

Joan is a frequent speaker and trainer on best practices in deal facilitation, negotiation, mediation, and arbitration and has published numerous articles and papers on these subjects.

Her legal practice experience includes as in-house counsel for Smith Barney, as the associate general counsel for the Commodity Exchange, Inc., both in New York city, and as an enforcement attorney for the Commodity Futures Trading Commission in Washington, D.C.

Joan is active in the Dispute Resolution Community. She has been nominated to serve as the Vice Chair of the ABA's Section of Dispute Resolution for the 2017-2018 bar year and is a member of its Executive Committee. Joan also is co-chair of the Mediation Sub-committee of the ADR Committee of the ABA's Section of Litigation. Joan is a graduate of Northwestern University and Case Western Reserve University School of Law.