

CPR/CEDR Advanced Mediation Skills Training

Leading to CEDR's international accreditation

Get an edge over other mediators with the 4-day fast track accreditation and gain an internationally recognised badge of mediator quality

CEDR Accreditation is recognised as the global gold standard for mediator competence, with over 7,000 accredited mediators in 70 countries.

If you are an existing mediator and want a Fast Track to International Accreditation, then this course is for you. By receiving the internationally recognised CEDR accreditation at the end of the program, this course can help you market yourself to mediate international disputes. During 4 days, not only do you receive extensive coaching but also a detailed one-to-one personal feedback from senior practicing mediators.
