

CPR Y-ADR Presents:

Y-ADR Mock Procedural Hearing under CPR Rules for Administered Arbitration of International Disputes

DATE: Wednesday, May 30, 2018
TIME: Registration – 4:30 – 5:00 pm
Program – 5:00-6:45 pm
Followed by a networking reception

PLACE: Allen & Overy – Bishops Square, London E1 6AD, UK

ALLEN & OVERY

Young lawyers will get an inside view of what often takes place at an initial procedural conference in an international arbitration. The mock arbitration involves an international energy dispute and is being conducted under the CPR Rules for Administered Arbitration of International Disputes before a panel of three arbitrators. Counsel and their clients will present their views on important procedural aspects of the arbitration, including the sequence of events, the number of filings, the timing and scope of document disclosure, and the possibility of mediation or settlement discussions. The mock will be followed by a Q & A session and a networking reception.

Speakers Include:

Arbitrators:

Jennifer Kirby | KIRBY, CPR Distinguished Neutral
Christopher Newmark | Spenser Underhill Newmark LLP, CPR Distinguished Neutral
Peter Thorp | Independent Arbitrator, CPR Distinguished Neutral

Counsel & Clients:

Katie Gray | Bechtel Oil, Gas & Chemicals
Sunil Mawkin | Allen & Overy LLP
Tom Miles | Shell International Limited
Gaurav Sharma | Three Crowns
Ruth Stone | SCB Group
Tomas Vail | White & Case London

Please RSVP to Y-ADRmock@allenoverly.com

About Y-ADR: CPR's Young Attorneys in Dispute Resolution (Y-ADR) program promotes the full spectrum of dispute resolution mechanisms with the younger generation of lawyers, and introduces them to corporate counsel and experts in the field. This program is recommended for attorneys 45 years old and younger, or those with less than 8 years of professional experience in international ADR practice.

