DAMALI PETERMAN

Damali Peterman is a social entrepreneur on a mission to leverage her 15+ years of global experience in the conflict resolution and legal industries to teach people how to listen, negotiate and resolve everyday situations in the workplace and beyond. By doing so, Damali helps create frictionless environments and improved efficiency. Damali is a highly regarded and sought-after lawyer, mediator, negotiator, educator and speaker. She is the Founder and CEO of two successful, award-winning companies—Breakthrough ADR and Damali Law.

Breakthrough ADR specializes in alternative dispute resolution, creating innovative and engaging ways to help individuals, companies, government agencies and educational institutions prevent, manage and resolve conflict. Breakthrough ADR offers three core services: mediation, training and consulting. Organizations that work with Breakthrough ADR report increased company efficiency and talent retention.

Damali Law is a boutique law firm that represents individuals and businesses on a full range of corporate and transactional matters including contract negotiation, business formation, reorganization and dissolution.

Damali has trained hundreds of New York police officers in mediation and conflict de-escalation techniques. She travels globally to teach workshops in negotiation and mediation and judge mediation competitions. She also virtually teaches students, educators and other professionals on 6 continents.

Globally recognized as a conflict resolution expert, Damali has been featured on NBC, CBS, FOX, ABC, In Touch Weekly, People, Black Enterprise, Medium, MadameNoire, CEOWorld, Daily Mail, New York Post and more.
