

Preeti Bhagnani

WHITE & CASE

preeti.bhagnani@whitecase.com

www.whitecase.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/preeti-bhagnani-4980705a/>

Preeti Bhagnani is a partner in White & Case's International Arbitration group, based in New York. She represents corporations and sovereign States in commercial and investment treaty arbitrations.

Preeti has handled arbitrations in a wide range of industries including oil and gas, natural resources, power, financial services, life sciences, real estate development and telecommunications, and under most major arbitral rules (including ICC, ICDR, SIAC, UNCITRAL and ICSID).

Select representations include:

- Successful representation of an energy sector insurance company in an arbitration against an international oil and gas company relating to liability for pollution
- Successful representation of a power sector investor in an arbitration against a Caribbean state arising out of a privatization contract
- Successful representation of a Canadian Province in an arbitration against several international oil companies in connection with a gas development project
- The Republic of Bulgaria in an ICSID arbitration concerning the real estate industry
- The Republic of Uzbekistan in an ICSID arbitration concerning two cement plants

Her leadership roles have included:

- Global Advisory Board member, International Center for Dispute Resolution Young & International
- Advisor, Energy Related Arbitration Practitioners
- White & Case New York Women's Alliance Leadership Council member
- North America Representative, London Court of International Arbitration Young and International Arbitration Group

Preeti is admitted in New York and Singapore, and holds a Master of Laws degree from Columbia Law School and a Bachelor of Laws degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science. Before joining White & Case, Preeti worked as corporate counsel at Shell and practiced at a leading law firm in Singapore.