

Christina Hioureas

Christina Hioureas is Partner in the International Litigation & Arbitration Department at Foley Hoag LLP and Chair of the firm's United Nations Practice Group.

Hioureas acts as counsel and arbitrator (emergency, sole and co-arbitrator) in international commercial arbitration (ICC, ICDR/AAA, LCIA, UNCITRAL, Swiss Rules), investment arbitration (UNCITRAL, ICSID), and mediated disputes (ICC Dispute Resolution Board). She also represents States in public international law disputes before international courts and tribunals as well as before U.S. courts and advises States on matters before the United Nations and its bodies. She is an elected Term Member to the Council on Foreign Relations as a Term Member and the Executive Council of the American Society of International Law. AHioureas has received recognition for consecutive years in publications including Chambers Global – Public International Law, Chambers USA – Arbitrators, Chambers USA – Arbitration Counsel, Legal 500, and Who's Who International Arbitration.