

SYMPOSIUM

ADR AND DIVERSITY

JANUARY 27, 2022
4:30 P.M.—7:00 P.M.
NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL

Events Center, Second Floor
185 West Broadway
New York, NY
(and streaming online)

This annual event will explore the reasons why, in a diverse economy driven by diverse participants, the practice of arbitration and mediation has been persistently homogeneous. Participants will seek to frame real-world recommendations on approaches that can accomplish the goal of ADR neutrals' reflecting the diversity of the disputants with whom they work.

CLE: 2.5 credits in Diversity, Inclusion, and Elimination of Bias (NY transitional and nontransitional)

COST: Free of Charge

KEYNOTE:

David A. Paterson
55th Governor of New York

SPEAKERS:

(Moderator) Genesis Fisher, New York Law School

(Featured) Deborah Enix-Ross, President-Elect, American Bar Association

James Arturo Aliga, Hispanic National Bar Association

Kabir Duggal, Racial Equality for Arbitration Lawyers

Rachel Gupta, ADR Inclusion Network

Lauren A. Jones, Metropolitan Black Bar Association

Ann Lesser, AAA-ICDR Diversity Committee

Dana MacGrath, ArbitralWomen

Thomas J. Maroney, Defense Research Institute (DRI) ADR Committee Chair

Rodney L. Pepe-Souvenir, Haitian American Lawyers Association of New York

Joanne Saint Louis, JAMS

Hon. Shira Schindlin, Co-Chair, Diversity Task Force, International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution

Jeff Zaino, American Arbitration Association

RSVP: www.nyls.edu/rsvpADR

CO-SPONSORS

AMERICAN
ARBITRATION
ASSOCIATION*

INTERNATIONAL CENTRE
FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION*

YOUNG
CONAWAY