

CPR Committee on Energy, Oil and Gas Names Andy Moody Vice Chair

NEW YORK – August 17, 2017 – The International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR), a global non-profit organization that advances dispute prevention and resolution practices and provides high quality solutions, announced that Andy Moody of Baker & McKenzie LLP will serve as Vice Chair alongside Committee Chair Karl Stern of Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan.

Mr. Moody is a partner in Baker & McKenzie's Dispute Resolution and International Arbitration practices in London. Mr. Moody has extensive experience in international arbitration, mediation, expert determination and complex litigation both before the English Court and abroad. He is also a solicitor advocate and regularly sits as arbitrator. Andy is recognized as a leading individual by Legal 500 and Chambers.

"I am delighted to be joining CPR's Energy Committee as Vice-Chair and look forward to working with Chair Karl Stern and the other members of the committee," said Mr. Moody. "In addition to ensuring we have a leading group of energy arbitrators on CPR's panel, we have some exciting new initiatives for the coming year around raising the profile of the committee, producing a written resource that will be useful to the industry and ensuring that the expertise and knowledge amongst the members of the committee is effectively shared. I look forward to helping CPR in this most important of sectors."

CPR's Energy, Oil & Gas Committee analyzes and disseminates information on issues that are critically important to business practices in this field. It has assembled a blue-ribbon international panel of energy neutrals in sub-specialties ranging from alternative energy sources to nuclear specialties and periodically puts on programs of interest.

Other representative members of CPR's Energy, Oil & Gas Committee hail from Baker & Hostetler LLP, ConocoPhillips, Eversource Energy, Norton Rose Fulbright, Pegasus Global Holdings, Inc. and Three Crowns LLP.
