

CPR Welcomes Four New Members to Its Board

NEW YORK – November 16, 2018 -- The International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR), a global non-profit organization that advances dispute resolution practices and provides high quality dispute resolution solutions, announced the addition of the following new board members: Cornell Boggs, Renato Stephan Grion, Laura Robertson and Sandra Phillips Rogers.

Cornell Boggs is a Senior Advisor in the Advisory and Coaching Division of Barker Gilmore, a New York-based boutique executive search firm. Most recently serving as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary at Toys “R” Us, Mr. Boggs was also previously SVP, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Dow Corning Corporation.

Renato Stephan Grion is a Partner at Pinheiro Neto Advogados in São Paulo. Educated and trained in Brazil, the U.S. and France, Mr. Grion is fluent in Portuguese, English, French and Spanish. His practice areas include Arbitration, Mediation, Civil and Commercial Litigation. Previously, he was Assistant Counsel at the Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC.

Laura Robertson is Deputy General Counsel, Litigation, Arbitration and Employment for ConocoPhillips. Ms. Robertson joined the company in 2007 as Senior Counsel of Commercial Litigation and Arbitration. In 2010, she became Managing Counsel of Arbitration and Claims. She and ConocoPhillips were the recipients of CPR’s 2017 Inspiring Innovation Award.

Sandra Phillips Rogers is Group Vice President, Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Toyota Motor North America, Inc. She oversees the legal services function for Toyota’s North American operations, Toyota Legal One (“TL1”), and the representation of the company and its affiliates.

“CPR’s Board of Directors continues to grow deeper and more diverse,” said Noah Hanft, CEO and President of CPR. “These impressive leaders, a strong mix of our key stakeholders, will no doubt help guide CPR to promote even greater innovation, thought leadership and excellence in addressing business conflicts.”
