International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution

One of CPR’s greatest strengths is the work produced by its members. CPR’s Advisory Council spearheads CPR’s innovation, acting as an incubator and sounding board for CPR projects. CPR’s industry-specific committees analyze dispute resolution challenges, recommend global best practices and publish materials on issues at the forefront of legal debate. The balanced perspectives of these committees provide a unique platform for analyzing the latest developments, both legal and practical, in all manner of dispute resolution. Committees meet regularly to analyze trends and develop projects relevant to their practice areas.

Committee chairs are Sarah Kirby of KPMG LLP and Lani Perlman of Holwell Shuster & Goldberg LLP.

Committee participation is open to CPR Members and Neutrals (by invitation) only.

The Banking and Financial Services Committee meets periodically to consider possibilities for the use of alternative dispute resolution to resolve anticipated disputes among or involving financial institutions.

It has sponsored presentations on Bi-lateral Investment Treaties, the “mediation window,” the Economical Litigation Agreement, ADR in bankruptcy cases, as well as on the subprime market and the role of ADR in private party litigation involving hedge funds.

At the request of the Committee, CPR has developed a Panel of Distinguished Neutrals specialized in resolving complex disputes arising between banking, accounting and financial services institutions.

Included on this Panel are attorneys with extensive financial background and expertise in resolving disputes which arise in the context of real estate, accounting, mergers & acquisitions, hedge funds and other types of corporate deals.
