The Co-Chairs of this Committee are Charles D. Coleman of Raytheon Company and Aaron Warshaw of Ogletree, Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart, P.C. If you would like to join this committee, contact Anna Hershenberg. Committee participation is open to CPR Members and Neutrals (by invitation) only.

CPR regularly convenes this committee of in-house counsel, attorneys, and leading ADR practitioners to analyze, establish benchmarks and publish material on issues that are critically important to employment ADR. The Committee has published Arbitration and Mediation Model Procedures for the resolution of employment disputes ADR programs as well as studies of corporate employment ADR programs. It has also collaborated with the Scheinman Institute of Cornell University’s ILR School to publish Cutting Edge Advances in Resolving Workplace Disputes. As part of CPR’s Master Guide Series, this volume features practical insights from a group of accomplished ADR practitioners on ways to make workplace conflict management more effective. Most recently, the Employment Committee hosted a webinar titled, “Arbitration Agreements and Class and Collective Action Waivers: What’s Next?”

One of CPR’s greatest strengths is the work produced by its members. CPR's Advisory Council spearheads CPR's innovation, acting as an incubator and sounding board for CPR projects. CPR's industry-specific committees analyze dispute resolution challenges, recommend global best practices and publish materials on issues at the forefront of legal debate. The balanced perspectives of these committees provide a unique platform for analyzing the latest developments, both legal and practical, in all manner of dispute resolution. Committees meet regularly to analyze trends and develop projects relevant to their practice areas.
