One of CPR’s greatest strengths is the work produced by its members. CPR’s Advisory Council spearheads CPR's innovation, acting as an incubator and sounding board for CPR projects. CPR’s industry-specific committees analyze dispute resolution challenges, recommend global best practices and publish materials on issues at the forefront of legal debate. The balanced perspectives of these committees provide a unique platform for analyzing the latest developments, both legal and practical, in all manner of dispute resolution. Committees meet regularly to analyze trends and develop projects relevant to their practice areas.

CPR regularly convenes this committee of in-house counsel, attorneys, and leading ADR practitioners to analyze issues, review business practices and establish benchmarks relating to resolution of disputes among businesses, or government and business, concerning environmental matters. In the past, the Committee has focused on promoting the use of ADR in the environmental context and identifying best practices for mediation and arbitration in this highly technical area of the law.

The Co-Chairs of this Committee are John Bickerman of Bickerman Dispute Resolution, PLLC and Steven Antunes of AEGIS Insurance Services, Inc.

If you would like to join this committee, contact Anna Hershenberg.

Committee participation is open to CPR Members and Neutrals (by invitation) only.
