

Christina Hollander is Counsel in the Litigation and Competition Group at Visa and works at their Foster City, California office. She advises on a wide range of disputes in the United States and Europe. Prior to joining Visa in 2015, Christina was a member of the Business Litigation Group at Farella Braun + Martel in San Francisco, California. Christina received her J.D. from University of California, Hastings College of the Law in 2009, and her B.A. from University of California at Los Angeles in 2006.