

Karyn is currently Associate General Counsel at Anheuser-Busch InBev's Canadian affiliate Labatt Breweries of Canada, and has been in this role since April 2012. She is currently based in Toronto. Karyn is responsible for advising the commercial team on regulatory and competition law issues that could impact the Canadian business. Karyn also participates in advising the business on regulatory litigation matters, sponsorships and M&A. Previous to her role as AGC, Karyn spent time in a commercial capacity at Labatt with roles in sales and customer marketing. Karyn has a J.D. from the University of Toronto (2002), and is a member of the Law Society of Upper Canada.