

Nicole is currently Managing Counsel in GE Power, responsible for the Distributed Power business worldwide and for the Steam Power Systems and Gas Power Systems businesses in Western Europe. Nicole is based in the greater Zurich region, in Switzerland. Before that, Nicole held various positions in Alstom and GE in Switzerland and London/UK, covering supply chain, M&A, JVs and strategic alliances, project development and project finance, and investigations.

Before joining Alstom in January 2008, Nicole worked in international arbitration in private practice in Geneva (Tavernier Tschanz).

Nicole is a Swiss qualified lawyer (Geneva Bar), as well as a solicitor of England and Wales. She speaks fluently English, French and German.