

Thalita Jorge is Legal Counsel for BP Biofuels Brazil, where she is in charge of the environmental and civil litigation matters. Before holding her current position, she practiced in a wide range of legal areas within BP Biofuels such as Contracts, Regulatory and Labor. Prior to joining BP in 2011, Thalita worked as CFO and CEO of two state-owned companies responsible for providing water and sewage services. She also taught Political Science and Environmental Law at a Law School in Brazil. She holds an Executive MBA and is specialized in Environmental Affairs.