

Brittany Mouzourakis
General Motors
Counsel for
Complex Litigation

Brittany Mouzourakis is currently Complex Litigation Counsel at General Motors. Brittany handles a variety of litigation matters for the company, including international arbitrations.

Prior to joining GM, Brittany was a litigation associate at Dykema in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, where her practice focused on class action defense. Prior to joining Dykema, Brittany clerked for two years in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Brittany holds a bachelor's degree in International Business from Central Michigan University and earned her juris doctor degree from Penn State University.