

Cherine Foty is a Senior Associate, International Arbitration at Covington & Burling LLP. She is a dually qualified and educated common law and civil law lawyer, a member of the New York and Paris Bars, and a US-French dual national. After spending several years practicing international arbitration at a major US law firm in Paris, Cherine will be joining the international arbitration practice of a prominent law firm in Washington, D.C. in September 2021. Cherine focuses her practice on international commercial and investment arbitration under a range of arbitral rules and applicable laws. She has particular experience in gas pricing arbitration, franchise disputes, banking and corporate arbitrations, and investment disputes. Cherine has been recognized as a Best Lawyers "One to Watch" 2022 in France.

Cherine is a Board Member of ArbitralWomen, a Steering Committee Member and Board Liaison of the Young ArbitralWomen Practitioners, and a Steering Committee Member of the Campaign for Greener Arbitrations and Co-Chair of its Africa Sub-Committee. She is also an Advisory Board Member of Arbitrator Intelligence, spearheading its global diversity campaign, and a member of the Rising Arbitrators' Initiative. Cherine regularly publishes in arbitration journals and blogs, and previously taught as a Professor of Law at the Sorbonne and Assas Law Schools in Paris.