

Megan Westerberg is an Assistant General Counsel at Eisai Inc., a global research and development-based pharmaceutical company with U.S. headquarters in Woodcliff Lake, New Jersey. She manages the company's litigation and internal/external investigations portfolio. She also oversees information governance and provides support to Eisai's compliance and risk management functions. Prior to joining Eisai, Ms. Westerberg worked at King & Spalding where her practice focused on complex civil litigation.