

Peter A. Halprin is a partner in Pasich LLP's New York office. Peter represents commercial policyholders in complex insurance coverage matters with a focus on recovery strategies in relation to cyber breaches and cyber crime, COVID-19 and natural disasters, professional services, regulatory investigations, and technology disputes. Over the course of his career, Peter has arbitrated, litigated, and mediated claims involving a broad range of insurance policies and recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in insurance proceeds for policyholders.

Peter acts as counsel for U.S. and foreign companies in domestic and international arbitrations, including both ad hoc (ARIAS, Bermuda Form, London) as well as institutional (AAA, ICC, ICDR, JAMS, LCIA) arbitration forums. He has served as both party-appointed and sole arbitrator, and is a Member of the AAA National Roster of Arbitrators, the CPR Institute's Distinguished Panels of Neutrals, and the Singapore International Arbitration Centre's Reserve Panel of Arbitrators.

Peter is a Fellow of both the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the Asian Institute of Alternative Dispute Resolution. He is an Adjunct Professor of Law, teaching International Commercial Arbitration, and Coach of the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Team.

He was recognized in Euromoney Legal Media Group's 2020 and 2021 Expert Guides as a Rising Star in Insurance and Reinsurance, Benchmark Litigation as a 2020 New York Future Star, and The American Lawyer as a 2021 Northeast Trailblazer.
