

Washington DC
T +1 202 508 8148
anna.stockamore@shearman.com

Anna Stockamore

BIOGRAPHY

Anna Stockamore is an associate in the International Arbitration practice.

RECENT EXPERIENCE INCLUDES REPRESENTATION OF:

- Enka Insaat ve Sanayi AS in proceedings brought before the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to request the confirmation of a $47 million award rendered in an ICC arbitration against Gabon in a dispute over payments on contracts to build the presidential palace and a museum in the country.
- The Republic of Panama, Respondent in an ICSID arbitration brought by Omega Engineering LLC and Mr. Oscar Rivera (ICSID Case No. ARB/16/42). The dispute relates to infrastructure construction projects. The claims are brought under both the Panama-U.S. bilateral investment treaty and trade promotion agreement.
- The pursuit of information for use in foreign proceedings through various actions brought under 28 U.S.C. § 1782.
- The U.S. enforcement of Confessions of Judgment against large corporate investors in default of their loan obligations to a consortium of international banks.
- The U.S. proceedings to confirm on behalf of the majority shareholders in the former Yukos Oil Company three Final Awards in which the Arbitral Tribunal ordered the Russian Federation to pay over USD 50 billion in damages to our clients. This is the largest arbitral award ever rendered by an arbitral tribunal.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center, J.D.
- Davidson College, B.A.

Admissions & Courts

Washington DC

Languages

- English
- Spanish

ANNA STOCKAMORE BIOGRAPHY (CONTINUED)

Nationality

U.S.

OF NOTE

Publications

“Encouraging Greater Use of Mediation in International Commercial Arbitration,” New York Law Journal (2018) (with J. Greenblatt, H. Weisburg and C. Ryan)